On Tuesday 19 July me, Sasha, Yona and my mum went to Packhorse hut, it took 1 hour and 55 minutes to get there it was meant to take 3 hours. I was like yay we made a record.

At the start mum took lots of pictures, she took a good one of Yona but I made a silly face mum was unhappy with that because otherwise it would be a great picture. We would have stayed the night if it was not that cold even though me, Sasha and Yona didn't think it was.

Next we had lunch we had pita bread with tuna for the filling mmmm. "Can we go play for a while," I asked mum, "Not for to long I'm cold," mum replied. So we went to play in the biggest bed room since there were bunk beds we kept jumping of them, Sasha jumped the furthest.

Finally we went back we played in the rock cave and took pictures.

We took 1 hour and 20 minutes to walk back and played on some other rocks.

We finally got back to the car and drove home we had a really fun time even though it was so tiring!
